

Strategies for the Classroom Environment and The Homeworking Parent

When: Thursday August 26th 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Where: Christ Fellowship Church 3850 Ziegler Rd

Target Audience: Classroom Teachers, Preschool through Elementary and Parents of all children

Presenter: John C. Murray, OTR is a pediatric occupational therapist with over 25 years experience working with children. The present day classroom expectations have changed, there is a need to understand the neuro-physiological demands of the 2010 school environment. Topics to be covered: pencil proficiency, focus span, tools for reading, school based anxiety, learning styles, motor skills including postural foundations for learning, reducing homework stress, etc...

Cost: $10 per adult (please make check out to John Murray)

RSVP: MurrayTherapy@msn.com

Sorry, No child care is available